The Ministry of Finance in partnership with the Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung (FES), Namibia are hosting a Public Private Partnership Public dialogue under the theme “Building Transport Sector through Public Private Partnership.

The key objective of the PPP dialogue is to further enhance the familiarity with respect to PPPs in transport sector among a broad spectrum of stakeholders. The dialogue also aims to bring infrastructure, public planning and finance professionals from the public and private sectors to a common forum.

We have an engaging agenda planned for the evening. This includes views from the Trade Union towards PPPs, why transport infrastructures are good for economy, importance of PPP framework, project initiative under transport sector and success stories from South Africa on transport sector and available opportunities from several stakeholders amongst others.

It is against this brief background that the Ministry of Finance in partnership with the Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung has the honour to invite you to share and exchange your views on the subject matter.

Kindly confirm availability to the dialogue with Ms. Cheryl Kahambea: email: office@fesnam.org.na; phone: +264 61 417 500. We will appreciate a response on or before 23 July 2018.
