

Swapo Party Women's Council: Regional Pilot Training of Trainers on Gender, Political Advocacy and Leadership Workshop

From May to August 2018, the SWAPO Party Women's Council in partnership with the Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung conducted a series of training of trainers workshop to empower the SWAPO Party Women's Council leadership with skills on how to impart the information contained in the handbook on gender, political advocacy, and leadership to grassroots women at district, branch and section level.

The training workshop took place in 4 clustered regions, Ohangwena and Oshikoto Region, Erongo, Kunene and Otjozondjupa Region, Kavango East, Kavango West and Zambezi Region, Omusati and Oshana Region.

28 women leaders from the 4 clustered regions of the SWAPO Party Women Council were trained to become trainers that will be responsible to roll out the information contained in the Handbook on Gender, Political Advocacy and Leadership.
