NIPAM SIGNS PERFORMANCE AND GOVERNANCE AGREEMENTS WITH THE PRIME MINISTER

The Namibia Institute of Public Administration and Management (NIPAM) recently signed Performance and Governance Agreements with the Office of the Prime Minister.

Amadhila the current Prime Minister of the Republic of Namibia and the Portfolio Minister of NIPAM, and members of the NIPAM Governing Council (GC).

The signing of the Performance and Governance Agreements will guide the institution in terms of the performance targets it should meet while dictating how to optimally run the institution. The Performance Agreement will be effective for one year, while the Governance Agreement will run for a period of three years. The signing of the agreements was presided over by the Rt. Hon. Dr Saara Kuugongelwa-

The NIPAM GC consisted of the Executive Director of NIPAM Ms Maria Ndatiwelao Nangolo, Dr George Simataa the current chairperson of the GC, Dr Delvaline Mowes, Ms Evelyn Naris, Mr Petrus Nevonga, Hon Walde Ndevashiya, Mr Theo Mberirua and Mr Randy Shigwele. Through the signing of these agreements, NIPAM commits itself to achieve and fulfil its mandate.

NIPAM encourages its staff to go for covid-19 vaccination to ensure a safer working environment
