

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

The purpose of this course is to provide participants with tools that would guide them in managing performance in the public service. This module will focus on performance agreements and performance reporting in the context of performance management in the Namibian Public Service. The effectiveness of the public service depends on the capacity of its human resources in terms of performance management. An effective performance management depends on proper planning at all levels and reporting as a way to monitor performance and that provide opportunity for coaching and mentoring during performance review meetings. In addition, issues regarding disputes and appeals resulting from appraisal are clarified in line with the PMS Policy of the Namibian Public Service, 2011 and the Public Service Staff Rules E VI.
