

NIPAM BULLETIN

ISSUE NO: 01

17-21 January 2022

2022 THE YEAR OF REIMAGING

His Excellency Dr. Hage Geingob declared 2022 to be the year of reimagining. In his message, the President emphasized that this should be a year in which citizens create a new and different mental picture that will guide the country's actions and processes in 2022.

NIPAM Executive Director, Ms Maria Nangolo conveyed a heartfelt message to all NIPAM staff, clients, partners, and stakeholders, welcoming them to 2022. In her message, Ms Nangolo highlighted that NIPAM aims to reimagine the administration of public sector institutions by:

- Providing relevant accredited training programmes.
- Serving as a one stop shop for consultancy services.
- Delivering on continuous capacity gap assessments and redressing gaps through innovative business process reengineering.

With the above, NIPAM strives to strengthen its mandate and achieve the state's transformation agenda.

Ms Maria N. Nangolo
-NIPAM Executive Director

4th Quarter Training Calendar

Course	Date	Venue	Amount (NS)
Business Writing Skills	24 – 28 January	NIPAM Campus	5 900.00
Strategic Management	31 January 4 February	NIPAM Campus	5 900.00
Supervisory Development programme	8 – 12 February	NIPAM Campus	5 900.00
Cleaning and House Keeping	8 – 12 February	NIPAM Campus	5 900.00
Finance for Non - Financial Managers	15 – 19 February	NIPAM Campus	3 900.00
Presentation Skills	7 – 11 March	NIPAM Campus	5 900.00
Protocol & Etiquette	7 – 11 March	NIPAM Campus	5 900.00
Customer Care	14 – 19 March	NIPAM Campus	3 900.00

EMPLOYEE BIRTHDAYS THIS WEEK

Dr Jafet Nelongo	21 January
------------------	------------

IT TIP

MALWARE

Anyone with access to your computer or device could potentially infect it with malware.

Twitter Facebook Instagram @NIPAM NAMIBIA

REMEMBER TO WEAR YOUR MASK,
WASH YOUR HANDS
THOROUGHLY WITH
SOAP AND SANITIZE
REGULARLY

