

NIPAM

Transforming through Capacity Building.

BULLETIN

ISSUE 23

9 - 13 October 2023

The Oshakati Regional Council's 2nd Group of Trainees attending the Occupational Health and Safety Training.

NIPAM - Cleaning and House Keeping Training also took place this week.

This is the Sixth InDesign Training that NIPAM is holding.

Bold as a Lion
Proverbs 28:1

THE ACTING EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR DELIVERS OPENING REMARKS AT THE LEADERSHIP TRAINING FOR THE NAMIBIAN POLICE FORCE-OTJIWARONGO

We are delighted to share exciting news from the National Institute of Public Administration and Management (NIPAM). On 09 October 2023, the Acting Executive Director of NIPAM, Ms. Nguvitjita Zatjirua, delivered opening remarks on a five-day leadership training program for senior officers (three Heads of Directorate and six regional commanders) of the Namibian Police Force. This significant event took place in the beautiful town of Otjiwarongo.

This leadership training program marks a crucial step towards enhancing the skills and capabilities of the law enforcement leaders in Namibia. NIPAM has long been committed to fostering professional development and excellence in public administration and management. Ms. Zatjirua encouraged the participants to embrace the opportunity to learn, grow, and evolve as leaders. "The knowledge you gain here will benefit your professional journey and contribute to the betterment of our beloved nation."

In his inaugurated remarks, the Inspector-General of the Namibia Police Force, Lt. General Joseph Shimweelao Shikongo highlighted that this course will equip you with the knowledge, skills, and mindset necessary to become exemplary ethical leaders. "Over the coming days, you will delve deep into integrity, empathy, transparency, and accountability principles. You will explore the intricate web of ethics that binds leaders to their followers, organizations to their stakeholders, and societies to their values."

@NIPAM NAMIBIA

www.nipam.na