

OTB Basketball Camp

At Deutsche Höhere Privatschule Windhoek (DHPS)
In corporation with Basketball Artists School (BAS)
Foundation

27th April – 29th April 2024

DHPS and BAS are offering a basketball camp, to enhance the skills of basketball players on and off the court!

Who can take part?

Boys and girls aged 6 to 18 years from all schools. Both beginners and advanced players are welcome. As far as possible, participants will be grouped by age and skill level.

What will be offered?

Three (3) days of intensive basketball training and playing, including basic and advanced skills training, conditioning, contests, and tournaments.

What does it cost?

The participation fee is N$ 750. The second child of a family is N$ 500, and the third child is N$ 300. The fee includes the camp T-shirt, lunch, a water bottle, and a certificate. Special awards will be given for outstanding performances.

When and where is the basketball camp?

It starts on Saturday, 27th April, and ends on Monday, 29th April 2024 (3 days). From 09h00 to 17h00 at DHPS, Church Street 11-15, Windhoek. Both the sports hall and the outdoor courts will be used for the camp.

How can I register?

Please scan the QR code on the bottom page, which will direct you to the online registration form, or complete the registration form and WhatsApp it to 0812200771, alternatively scan and email it to admin@bas-foundation.org. The number of participants is limited; first come, first serve!!

Who will be the coaches?

Most coaches will be from BAS, including Coordinator Malakia Matias. The camp is open to interested coaches from other organizations.

Who is BAS?

The Basketball Artists School (BAS) Foundation is an after-school program focusing on education, life skills, and basketball. The joint basketball camp with OTB and DHPS aims to strengthen the cooperation among the three organizations and is part of the BAS fundraising activities. Please find more information on:
